Faster and More Effective Endpoint Security

Consolidate Without Compromise

Carbon Black offers an endpoint security suite with faster and more effective security in the deployment model that's right for your organization.

For those looking to reduce agent fatigue, Carbon Black delivers multiple security capabilities through a cloud-delivered platform that shares one console and one lightweight agent. Cloud-based analytics ensure your employees' productivity isn't affected and their endpoints aren't slowed down. As requirements change, adding new solutions is fast and easy, and doesn't require the deployment of new agents.

Use Cases

Carbon Black offers an endpoint security suite purpose-built to meet your needs, whether you're looking for better protection or deep threat hunting capabilities.

- Prevent Known & New Attacks as They Evolve
Carbon Black analyzes attackers' behavior patterns over time to detect and stop never-seen-before attacks, whether they're malware based or fileless
- Investigate Threats & Close Gaps in Real Time
Get the insight you need quickly and easily. Visualize the attack chain, identify root cause, and respond immediately to threats
- Augment Internal Expertise
Gain round-the-clock eyes on glass from our threat experts, who provide validation, context into root cause, and automated monthly executive reporting
- Improve IT Hygiene & Asset Management
Easily audit and change system state to track and improve your security posture.
- Hunt for and Remediate Threats
Proactively hunt for abnormal activity leveraging cloud-delivered threat intelligence and custom watchlists to automate repetitive hunts
- Secure Virtual Datacenters
Achieve superior protection from advanced threats without compromising availability and performance through embedded security in the hypervisor

More than 5,300 global customers, including 35 of the Fortune 100, trust Carbon Black to keep their organizations safe. Here's what they have to say:

"Carbon Black gave us proactive, real-time visibility into threats. It alerted us to a lot of things traditional AV did not see, and prioritized those alerts so we know what to focus on."

- RYAN MANNI, MANAGER SECURITY OPERATIONS, HOLOGIC

"With Carbon Black we are able to quickly investigate, respond, and remove our outdated AV solutions from our environment."

- STEVEN LENTZ, CISO, SAMSUNG RESEARCH AMERICA

"Carbon Black is essentially our Swiss army knife. We can do a lot of different things with a lot of information. The overall coverage and overall response times were greatly improved from what we had before. For us it was a no brainer."

- CARL ERICKSON, CISO, PHILIPS LIGHTING, N.V.

"One of our goals was to consolidate our security products. What Carbon Black was able to do was bring multiple systems into one."

- WILLIAM BOCASH, IT MANAGER, STONEWALL KITCHEN

"Carbon Black is easy. Through a single cloud portal you can manage everything in one or two clicks — simple as that."

- ISANKA ATTANAYAKE, MANAGER IT INFRASTRUCTURE, ROCELL

"Its simplicity and responsiveness are amazing, especially when you are running an investigation where every minute matters. Endpoint security used to be difficult."

- DENIS XHEPA, IT SYSTEMS SECURITY ENGINEER, MIDCAP FINANCIAL SERVICES
